

Information and Additional Terms for Global Glamour at Arethusa

Risk & Mortality Insurance: Each individual consignment is at the sole risk of the seller until sold and at the sole risk of the buyer when struck off by the auctioneer. Insurance is available to the seller prior to the sale and also available to each buyer at the sale. Sale Management and the Sale Host encourage everyone to afford themselves of this protection. All purchases made on terms require insurance the day of the sale on the unpaid balance with Seller listed as loss payee. A minimum insurance policy of 30 days will be placed on any balance not settled at the sale with buyer responsible for payment. Insurance is available through Merry Rama, Agent, American Livestock Insurance Co., Harding & Harding, Inc. at phone 607-746-2226 or at the sale.

By-bidding: All consignors, partners or syndicate members reserve the right to bid or be members of buying syndicates.

Export Sales: Cattle sold to Canada will require 100% payment at time of sale. Cattle staying at Arethusa Farm to be tested for export will be charged a flat fee of $500 per animal to cover the expense of boarding, testing and export paperwork. This fee is the Buyer's responsibility.

Payment and Special Terms: Buyers are expected to pay for purchases the day of the sale. All terms are cash unless specifically noted in a catalog or update sheets. Consignments offered on terms require PRIOR APPROVAL BY CONSIGNOR OR SALE MANAGEMENT BY FRIDAY, JULY 25TH! No exceptions. Cattle will only be released when full payment has been made or settlement arrangements agreed upon.

Dollar Value Used for Calculating Term Sales: The sale takes place July 28th, 2008 and the value of the US dollar on July 28th, 2008 will be used to calculate the balance owed on term sales.

Purchaser's Agreement: Proper settlement is expected at the conclusion of the sale. Should the Buyer not be in attendance, proper settlement is demanded no later than 7 days after the sale. By submitting the highest bid either in person, by phone or proxy using a personal agent or member of the sale staff, Buyer expressly agrees to the printed and announced sales terms and conditions. Should the Buyer default on payment, the total amount shall be due and payable upon demand of the sales manager, The Cattle Exchange. In the event of default, Buyer authorizes entry of judgment by confession for the total amount due, together with interest at the rate of 12% plus costs and attorney's fees, and further consents to the jurisdiction of, and the entry of judgment in, the court of jurisdiction in Delaware County, New York. All defenses of demand, notice, dishonor and presentment are hereby waived.

Contract Information: Every effort will be made by the Sale Management and the Sale Host to have existing contracts available at the sale for your full inspection. Every contract is conditional and many have expiration dates along with other criteria that must be met. It is the Buyer's responsibility to become aware of the conditional requirements prior to purchase. Each potential buyer is encouraged to visit with the Owner and the Sale Management well in advance of the auction and familiarize themselves with the contracts offered with each consignment. Contract values will be added to the sale website www.ggatarethusa.com by July 18th.

Standard ET Choice of Flush Terms: 25% due at conclusion of sale. 75% balance due at selection and possession with no interest on unpaid balance. Possession date will be when the youngest calf in the group offered is 4-5 months of age or is otherwise listed on the pedigree or announced at the sale.

Additional ET Choice Information: Seller is entitled to $4.00 per day board fee after the youngest calf is 5 months of age. If Buyer fails to make selection and take possession within 60 days after the youngest calf is 5 months of age, and if the Seller has notified the Buyer by certified mail of the impending default of the sale, and after giving the Buyer 10 days to respond to this certified letter, the sale will then be termed in default and the Buyer will lose all rights as purchaser and will forfeit his down payment. Seller is to complete all blood typing and transfer the registration certificate in a timely manner.

Should a calf chosen from the respective flush fail to meet the breeding guarantees as stated in Holstein USA's Terms and Conditions listed in this catalog, the Seller will refund the Buyer the purchase price in full, less the salvage value of the animal. No boarding fee, feed expense or trucking expenses are due to the Buyer. Should an acceptable calf not result from the respective flush, the following steps will be taken to fulfill the purchase agreement;

1. Seller offers choice of remaining ET's from respective flush;
2. Seller offers choice of other flushes or calves that are available from the donor with no interest and the payment schedule will remain the same with respect to age of calf selected;
3. If no pregnancies can be made available to the Buyer, as in the sale or death of donor, or the donor's inability to produce embryos; the Seller shall provide the buyer a sound, healthy, acceptable calf from another cow of equal or greater value as determined by the Sale Management.

Biosecurity Statement: Buyer's assume responsibility for cattle purchased when gavel falls and animal is pronounced sold. Buyer must take prudent measures to insure the health of his herd, including using a clean trailer to transport purchases, segregating new animals for 10 days and milking them last until milk samples have been tested. Testing for BVD and Johne's is also recommended as viable animal husbandry practice.

Johne's Disclaimer: There is no warranty, expressed or implied, that animals being sold within this sale are uninfected with paratuberculosis (Johne's Disease). This is written as a Buyer's notice as required by some states.
